Manage Your Programs on Whole Health Hub

Whole Health Hub empowers and supports community organizations to more easily and effectively help people in need of your services. One of the main ways organizations can access this support is by creating a free account and claiming their program(s).

What is Claiming?

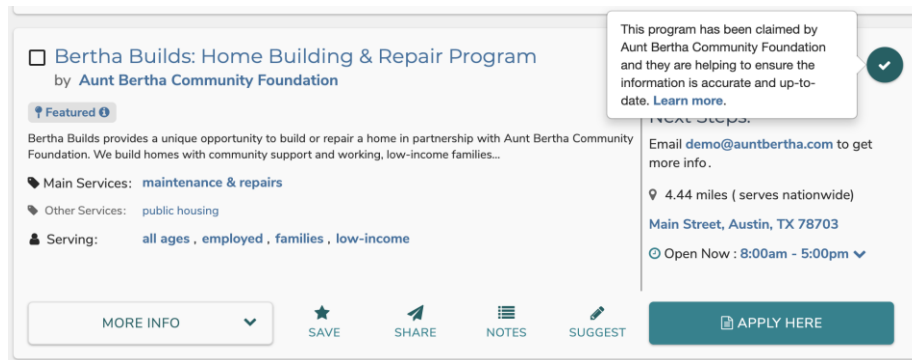

Claiming your program allows you to access and update your program’s information. You also have the option to accept referrals, create intake screeners and eligibility assessments, review reporting and analytics tools, and more — all for free!

How Can I Claim My Programs?

Claiming is simple! Just follow these steps:

1. Go to Whole Health Hub
2. Search for your program or organization within your organization’s main ZIP Code.
3. A list of possible matches will appear; select the claim button to the right of your program(s).
4. Create a free account and verify your claim via email (keep an eye out for that email!).
5. After your claim is confirmed, a check mark will appear in the corner of your program’s listing.

6. Don't see your organization listed? Suggest your program\(s\) here.

What is the Findhelp Social Care Network?

Think of the Findhelp social care network as a house of resources with many doors. In addition to offering Whole Health Hub in partnership with AdventHealth, Findhelp also partners with other entities in order to fulfill their shared mission of connecting all people in need and the programs that serve them, with dignity and ease. You may hear about other websites powered by Findhelp and it's important to know that each site is an additional doorway into the same house. Every door strengthens the network by creating more access points and there is no wrong door to come inside. Across all Findhelp sites, you can search for resources, claim your programs, and access free program tools and reports. When you use Whole Health Hub, you are connected to the entire Findhelp social care network.
