

Greetings!

We are excited to announce a new online course called: Understanding Emotional Intelligence to Effectively Mentor.

This course was created for physicians and advanced practice providers that are participating in the Mentoring program.

This course objectives include:

- What emotional intelligence is and its impact on mentoring and leadership
- How to increase your emotional intelligence through skill building
- How to use emotional intelligence to reach goals and enhance relationships

In order to Make It Easy, we have created this course to be readily accessible through ALN and with a 1 hr. duration.

Upon completion of the course, physicians will be able to submit a form to apply for 1 CME credit.
