SPREADING HEALTH CARE AROUND THE WORLD

Doctors and nurses who trained at Battle Creek traveled the U.S. and around the globe extending the healing touch of Christ. By 1910, 54 Adventist health care facilities had opened in 24 states and 17 countries. By the start of World War II, another 35 overseas hospitals had been added.

Nº 9

TIME CAPSULE

Legacy Series | AdventHealth